I pay my respects to the Sun, who is as radiant as the Japanese Rose flower, possesses great brilliance, is the destroyer of darkness, eliminates all sins, and is the son of Sage Kashyap. I salute the Moon, who is as radiant as curd, conch, and frost, emerged from the Milky Ocean, is the crown jewel of Lord Shiva, and symbolizes the nectar of life. I bow to Mars, who was born from Mother Earth, whose radiance is comparable to lightning, who is in his youth and holds power in his hands. I pay respects to Mercury, the son of the Moon, who is as deeply green as the bud of the Priyangu creeper, who possesses incomparable beauty and is endowed with tranquil qualities. I salute Jupiter, the teacher of gods and sages, who glows like gold, is endowed with wisdom, and is the lord of all the worlds. I salute Venus, who is as white as the snow, jasmine, and the stem of the lotus, who is the supreme teacher of the demons, the preacher of all scriptures, and the son of Sage Bhrigu. I bow to Saturn, who glows with the blue-black sheen of kohl, who is the son of the Sun, the elder brother of Yama, and was born from Chhaya and Martand (Sun). I pay my respects to Rahu, who is half-bodied, greatly powerful, known to swallow the Sun and the Moon, and who was born from the womb of Simhika. I bow to Ketu, whose radiance is like the flower of a Palasa plant, who is of a Rudra (ferocious) nature and the son of Rudra, who is fearsome, and is the head of the stars and planets. One who reads this prayer (that emerged from the mouth of Lord Veda Vyasa) during the day or at night with single-minded concentration, finds all his obstacles removed. The

Lagna Chart

Navamsha Chart

In Vedic astrology, planetary friendships—comprising Natural, Temporary, and Five Fold Friendships—play a pivotal role in interpreting a chart. They indicate the harmony or discord between planets, influencing the outcomes in various life domains. Understanding these relationships helps astrologers assess the combined effects of planetary positions, offering deeper insights into a person's experiences and tendencies, and guiding holistic remedies.

Planetary Aspects (Drishti)

In Vedic astrology, planetary aspects (drishti) are pivotal in analyzing a birth chart. Vedic aspects provide insights into the inherent influences planets exert on each other, Jaimini aspects focus on the sign-based interactions, and Tajika aspects, blend Persian techniques to reveal temporal influences. Together, they offer a comprehensive understanding of an individual's life patterns and potentialities.

The Sudarshan Chakra in Vedic astrology is a vital tool that provides a comprehensive view of the three primary aspects of a person's life, represented by the Sun (soul), Moon (mind), and Ascendant (body). It allows for an integrated analysis of the natal chart, aiding in precise predictions and comprehensive understanding. It also helps in the timing of events by analyzing transits from three different perspectives. Lastly, it reveals the overall quality of time periods and their effects on a person's life.

Sudarshan Chakra indicates the cumulative influence of benefic and malefic planets as reckoned from : (i) the Ascendant, (ii) the Moon and (iii) the Sun at a glance. This also pinpoints the corresponding age-periods during which those influences will operate.

If the influences are of natural benefic planets (Jupiter, Venus, Mercury, Waxing Moon) only, then the whole year will be enjoyable and auspicious events will take place.

If the influences are of natural malefic planets (Mars, Saturn, Rahu, Ketu, Sun, Waning Moon) only, then the year might be problematic and inauspicious happenings are likely to take place.

Vimshottari Dasha is a system used in Vedic astrology for determining the planetary periods, also known as dashas, in a person's life. The word 'Vimshottari' means '120' in Sanskrit, which represents the total number of years in a complete cycle of all the planetary periods.

The system is based on the position of the Moon at the time of a person's birth, and it assigns certain periods of time to each of the nine planets of Vedic astrology. Each planet has a specific number of years assigned to it, ranging from 6 to 20 years, depending on its position in the system.

During each planetary period, the planet in question is said to have a significant influence on a person's life. This influence can be positive or negative, depending on the individual's birth chart and the specific planetary alignments at the time.

Vimshottari Dasha is considered an important tool in Vedic astrology, as it provides a detailed and accurate system for predicting major events and changes in a person's life. It is widely used by astrologers to make predictions about career, relationships, health, and other aspects of a person's life, and can be a valuable tool for those seeking guidance or insight into their future.

You may often appear to be timid, but all on a sudden may revert to being quite unyielding or obstinate - sometimes even audacious; for such tendencies, some people may not consider you to be very reliable or dependable either - for which you may lose some opportunities for advancement. At times you may be guided by fanatical enthusiasm - but you will soon be able to overcome it all by yourself.

You may have a highly passionate nature, and may have no regard at all for the possible consequences; but for this, you may face some troubles quite frequently, and lose sympathy or support of some of your friends and well wishing people. If you are engaged in some creative pursuit, then you will be fortunate to become successful in your endeavors. But if you are engaged in a rather common profession in a modest capacity, then you must curb all these unproductive tendencies, and come back to the real world - by placing your feet on the firm soil. This is for the simple reason that by pursuing fanciful risky projects, you can only render yourself vulnerable to meet with some sort of gross disappointment.

If a natural benefic planet is conjoined with the Moon or aspects it, you will follow a firm direction for putting in your efforts; obviously, you can then look forward to attaining a coveted position and success in all your endeavors. Dame fortune - with her sweet will - may decide as to when to favor you with her blessings of abundance and plenty; you are sure to rise to a dignified position by virtue of your merits and inherent qualities - at a fairly early age-period. But if a natural malefic planet influences the Moon instead, then you are likely to have a shocking disappointment in a love affair; alternately, one of your children may become afflicted with some congenital defect. Besides, you may tend to suffer from morbid tendencies, misplaced sympathies, and even fanatical enthusiasm. Some secretly inimical false friends may try to create a series of troubles for you, and you may even run the risk of losing your credibility, honor, rank or status.

Malefic effects of all planets and remedies

In Vedic Astrology, malefic planetary influences, primarily from Mars, Saturn, Rahu, and Ketu, can bring challenges but also opportunities for growth and transformation. These planets, though difficult, nudge us out of our comfort zones and prompt self-improvement. Vedic remedies, including gemstones, mantras, rituals, fasting, and charity, are used to soften these malefic effects and harmonize our energies with cosmic rhythms. For example, mitigating Saturn's influence might involve wearing blue sapphire, chanting specific mantras, or giving food to the needy. These remedies are not immediate solutions, but consistent practice and faith in these age-old wisdoms can help us navigate life's challenges better. Therefore, malefic planetary effects are not obstacles but cues for introspection and spiritual growth, facilitated by Vedic remedies.

Moon Sign View

In Your Chart
Moon Sign is - Pisces

A Moon sign, in astrology, is the zodiac sign that the Moon was in at the time of a person's birth. It is believed to influence a person's emotional and intuitive nature, and is considered to be important in Vedic astrology. It is considered to be more important than the Sun sign, which is based on the position of the Sun at the time of birth, and is used to determine a person's personality and overall character. The Moon sign is also believed to be more accurate than the rising sign (also known as the Ascendant) in revealing a person's true nature.

Mental Characteristics

In your chart, the Moon is situated in sign Pisces; it is the negative sign ruled by the benign planet Jupiter - which is symbolized by a pair of fishes in opposite postures tied together. It is a common and watery sign, having a characteristic dual nature. Basically, you may have a dreamy nature, and possess the unique tendency of mixing up reality with imagination. With your extreme changefulness and inconstancies, you may really deserve to be branded as queer. You may often appear to be timid, but all on a sudden may revert to being quite unyielding or obstinate - sometimes even audacious; for such tendencies, some people may not consider you to be very reliable or dependable either - for which you may lose some opportunities for advancement. At times you may be guided by fanatical enthusiasm - but you will soon be able to overcome it all by yourself.

You may have a highly passionate nature, and may have no regard at all for the possible consequences; but for this, you may face some troubles quite frequently, and lose sympathy or support of some of your friends and well wishing people. If you are engaged in some creative pursuit, then you will be fortunate to become successful in your endeavors. But if you are engaged in a rather common profession in a modest capacity, then you must curb all these unproductive tendencies, and come back to the real world - by placing your feet on the firm soil. This is for the simple reason that by pursuing fanciful risky projects, you can only render yourself vulnerable to meet with some sort of gross disappointment.

If a natural benefic planet is conjoined with the Moon or aspects it, you will follow a firm direction for putting in your efforts; obviously, you can then look forward to attaining a coveted position and success in all your endeavors. Dame fortune - with her sweet will - may decide as to when to favor you with her blessings of abundance and plenty; you are sure to rise to a dignified position by virtue of your merits and inherent qualities - at a fairly early age-period. But if a natural malefic planet influences the Moon instead, then you are likely to have a shocking disappointment in a love affair; alternately, one of your children may become afflicted with some congenital defect. Besides, you may tend to suffer from morbid tendencies, misplaced sympathies, and even fanatical enthusiasm. Some secretly inimical false friends may try to create a series of troubles for you, and you may even run the risk of losing your credibility, honor, rank or status.

8. Bad Relations with family members and friends.
9. Treachery from friends and colleagues.

Due to these obstacles, a person's future and development gets affected, or in short, every aspect of their life gets affected. Even in the materialistic world, they are remembered for their actions throughout their life. A single wrongful conduct can tarnish all the good deeds of a person's life. Hence, individuals who desire fame should always wisely choose their actions. However, sometimes, an individual's or their family members' actions do not lead to disgrace, rather, it occurs due to unforeseen, unknown, or adverse circumstances. From an astrological perspective, it's not the individual's fault but the unfavorable conditions of their planets that are included in their destiny and hence, they have to bear the consequences. Such obstructions to fame cause immense mental pain to individuals. Therefore, understanding these, one should take appropriate remedial actions.
