What is Sun?

Significance - Father, Soul, Masculine Principles, Motivation, Action, Authority.

The Sun is associated with the concept of power. The house in which the Sun is located is considered very important. Even the characteristics of the sign associated with the Sun are generally quite intense. The house in which the Sun is situated is extremely important for an individual's entire lifespan. The Sun, located in a specific house and sign in a person's natal chart, indicates the person's motivational power, which is a reflection of the person's nature and the relationships established with other planets and houses through conjunction and aspect. This is something the individual aspires to become and is reflected in the symbol of the Sun (a circle representing completeness or maturity, within which is a point representing potential/capacity).

The Sun represents masculine principles such as creativity, progress, desire power, purpose, authority, the feeling of uniqueness, and includes all governing bodies such as owners, fathers, and rulers. Just as a king or ruler of a country is an individual under whose governance the diverse social groups of the nation either unite or divide, similarly, the Sun symbolizes a process by which the energies of other planets present in the chart are integrated or destroyed. The positive effects of the Sun are generosity, affection, and creativity, while its negative effects are

Predictions of Planet Sun.

You are Cancer ascendant born. The Sun is posited in the seventh house from your birth-ascendant in the Capricorn sign whose lord, the Saturn, is an enemy of the Sun. This Sun will, therefore, give you little good results. This position of the Sun makes you a self-respecting and a self-praising person, and it also makes you hot-tempered. Your conduct and your wife's conduct could be doubtful in the eyes of the society. You will be financially strong and you will possess all the means of happiness, however, you will remain worried on account of your children, or you could have no issues.

This seventh Sun will grant you success in the field of medical sciences, and you could become a good physician or an Ayurvedic practitioner, however, it will be difficult to get rid of the problems and mental tensions. You could have ideological differences with your wife, and your relations with your kinsfolk will also not be congenial. You are a benevolent person by nature and you trust everyone because of which you could also get deceived, sometimes. Since you as well as your wife, both, are spendthrift by nature, you will find it very difficult to make any wealth gains. You will, however, be able to make gains by controlling your expenditure. Any partnership venture may not prove to be very beneficial for you.

This Sun has its full seventh aspect on the first house inhabited by the Cancer sign whose lord, the Moon, is a friend of the Sun. This position could prove auspicious for you. You are of medium height, fair complexion and a sound physical built. You are apparently rigid, but you are sensitive in practice. Your relations with your father could be tense. The relations with respect to the State, however, remain normal.

Significance - Feminine Principles, Mother, Mind, Emotions/Innate Behavior/Reactions.

After the Sun, the second most important planet is the Moon. It represents the concept of cyclical change and internal motivation. Family and social reactions are associated with the Moon. Just as the Sun is related to action, the Moon is related to reaction. These reactive emotions are largely unconscious in childhood and only manifest when an individual becomes aware of the true self represented by the Sun. As a result, the Moon can inform about a person's emotional development as a child and how it might evolve later in life, through its position in a specific sign and house, and through its relationships with other planets.

Through the Moon, feminine principles such as natural habits, domestic environment, protective tendencies, mood, imagination, dietary preferences and priorities, attitude towards the past, ability to become a public person or reach out to common people, fate manifesting cyclical changes, the feeling of self in an individual, and control of females, especially the mother, are represented. ## What is Mars?

Significance - War, power, internal strength, courage, high ambition, firm determination, and younger siblings.

Mars is considered the most powerful planet. It symbolizes fire and energy. At a basic level, Mars represents the intense determination to fight for existence. As in a life-threatening situation, a person can either choose to fight or flee. A person will fight only for what they value. What a person values is determined by Mercury, hence, to understand the implication of Mars in a horoscope, one should also examine Mercury. While Mercury indicates what is important to a person, Mars shows how a person achieves or protects it. As a result, Mars exemplifies all the qualities that assist a person in achieving their dreams and thus enhancing their self-image. Hence, the fundamental qualities represented by Mars are courage, bravery, initiative, physical, and mental inner strength.

As a warrior, Mars is extremely pleased with individuals surrounded by or caring for metal objects - iron swords, shields, armor, weapons. In modern times, this inclination could be interpreted as individuals related to sharp/metallic tools, metal melting industries, people related to machines or working with machines such as engineers and technicians. The positive influences of Mars are visible in the form of love for freedom, defense of the oppressed, a nature to work hard, competitive spirit, and a desire for leadership, while negative influences can make a person argumentative, struggle-loving, fierce, and quarrelsome.

What is Jupiter?

Significance - Education/Intelligence, Morality, Religion, Progress, Expansion, Happiness, Self-Earned Wealth and Offspring.

Jupiter's indicative word is expansion. Since it's the largest planet in the solar system, it is no wonder that in astrology it represents progress and expansion. Generally, Jupiter provides very favorable results in the area of life related to the house in which it is located. From a physical point of view, Jupiter represents physical development, particularly cellular development, and nourishment through digestion. But, the major significance of Jupiter in the birth chart is as a social planet, a role it shares with Saturn. The Sun, Moon, Mars, Mercury, and Venus all deal particularly with individual aspects of a person's character without reference to paternal or environmental factors. In contrast, Jupiter shows how a person develops throughout life to affirm their existence.

In this context, growth means how a person advances in response to prevalent beliefs in society, to what extent they integrate with these beliefs or challenge them. In the quest to secure a place in the world, the sign and house occupied by Jupiter, as well as its aspect relationships with other significant planets and houses, indicate a person's social expectations and ideals, and the opportunities to materialize them. At other levels, Jupiter shows a person's conception of God, religious beliefs, philosophy, sense of law, and all theoretical thoughts. It also represents higher education, morality, politics, spiritual and physical prosperity, reputation, honor, any work related to abroad, extravagance, obesity, and overeating/excessive consumption. A person being optimistic, compassionate, kind, and sports-loving indicates positive effects of Jupiter, whereas being careless, over-optimistic, inattentive, wasteful, and attachment demonstrates its

What is Venus?

Significance - Art, comfort, wealth attained easily without labor, love, affection, beauty, and sexual relations.

Traditionally, Venus signifies the need for harmony, affection, and relationships in life. However, at a more fundamental level, Venus relates to the attractions and repulsions that a person experiences and the individual's response to these influences. It involves a process of comparison, which attempts to determine what is good or bad according to the person's own needs. Sometimes, this leads to cooperative and sharing behavior, as most people prefer to be connected with others rather than be alone or unpopular. In the context of love, Venus manifests the person's reaction to love when it is received, rather than how the person expresses love emotionally towards themselves. The function of emotional expression is Mars.

Note that Venus hardly ever gives anything in a conflict without expecting something in return. Hence, the person's ability to attract harmonious relationships depends on the sign and house occupied by Venus and especially on the planets that Venus contacts through its aspects. On other levels, in addition to physical attraction or repulsion, Venus' portfolio includes beauty, art, all kinds of close relationships, modernity, taste, interests, fashion, femininity, female eroticism, physical skill, diplomacy, arrogance, all means of currency exchange, and easily acquired wealth. The friendly behavior, artistry, excellent conduct, and affable nature of a person illustrate the positive effects of Venus, while selfishness and excessive romanticism in an

What is Saturn?

Saturn's astrological function is to restrict in order to balance the expansive nature of Jupiter. Limitation and difficulty are key characteristics of Saturn. A person always faces limitations and restrictions in activities under the jurisdiction of the house ruled by Saturn. This is often painful, but no part is less important for the development of the person, as Saturn insists on progressing within the manageable limits of Jupiter.

The position of Saturn in the horoscope shows where and how a person wants to establish their identity in society. The aspects Saturn establishes with other planets and houses focus attention on the obstacles in the person's path. These may be self-imposed or about events that seem beyond the person's control. In both situations, Saturn teaches that through harsh confrontation with reality and by limiting circumstances, the individual must make changes within themselves before achieving their ambitions. As only a few people accept obstacles, delays or difficulties with grace, Saturn is regarded as the cause of painful and tormenting experiences filled with sorrow and desolation.

What Remedies should be taken for good health?

The ups and downs of happiness and sorrow are a constant in a person's life. However, generally, a person experiences the most distress during physical illness. If a person is physically unwell, no matter how comfortable their surroundings are, they do not experience any form of pleasure. It is said that 'where there is life, there is a world'. The reality is that if a person maintains their health, their life is considered vibrant, and they can fully enjoy the pleasures of life, otherwise they will be deprived of any kind of happiness.

Therefore, one should be vigilant about health and when necessary, also perform astrological remedies for it. Without treatment, it's impossible to recover health, but sometimes, medical treatment may not affect a person's illness. In such cases, if astrological remedies are performed along with treatment, considering the planetary periods, it might be possible to recover from the illness more quickly.

What Remedies should be taken for Education, Knowledge and Wisdom?

In ancient times, the nature of education was completely different from today's education. Back then, education was considered a means to achieve knowledge and liberation, not a means to earn a living. Therefore, there was no such competition in education then, which is evident in today's education system. In this scientific age, as the pace of development increased, so did the sources for earning a living. The importance of education grew day by day to accelerate this pace of development. Today's situation is such that if a person remains uneducated, they will definitely have to live undeveloped in this developed era. Gaining education is also not as easy now. After a person's marriage, the journey of married life begins. This phase of life takes up most of a person's time. Hence, whether it is joyous or full of hardships greatly impacts an individual's entire life. Married life is formed by mutual understanding, harmony, love, devotion, empathy, sweetness, and a sense of belonging between a husband and wife. However, if the opposite attributes start surfacing in married life, the situation becomes more painful than joyful. Generally, both husband and wife have the responsibility to fulfill their duties with dedication and love, thereby preventing discord and conflict in the family. ## What Remedies should be taken for Residence related Problems?

After a human is born, various needs arise in his life, but the primary necessities are first food, then clothing. After fulfilling these, one feels the need for a residence where he can live comfortably with his family. As every individual wishes to have their own house and all sorts of physical comforts, actually acquiring everything is not always easy. There are several obstacles to achieve these. While some people face more hurdles, others get everything quite easily. In astrology, these ups and downs are considered to be the play of planets and destiny, which vary for everyone, forcing each person to live in different conditions.

- (1) Pay respects to the land of your home or where you live daily, clean it with milk, and worship Hanuman Ji. Based on your fate and actions, you will receive splendid housing comfort.
- (2) Plant big and heavy trees at the earth element location of your house, i.e., the South-West direction, which is Rahu's place. There will always be prosperity and happiness in your house. Always maintain good relations with your brother.

What Remedies should be taken for Vehicle related Problems?

In modern times, material luxuries have established their place in life in such a way that life seems difficult without them. In this scientific era, as development is progressing rapidly, individuals have to increase their pace accordingly. The days are gone when people traveled from one place to another in bullock carts over many days. Therefore, the importance of modern vehicles in life is increasing. In fact, it has moved from being a desire to a necessity. Since a vehicle is becoming essential for everyone, it is not necessary that everyone enjoys this comfort. Some people own numerous vehicles, while others, despite great efforts, fail to acquire even one. Some people, despite having a vehicle, are unable to fully enjoy its benefits due to various circumstances. From an astrological perspective, this difference is due to the influence of the planets at the time of one's birth. If an individual can understand the influence of the planets in their birth chart and use vehicles accordingly, they can not only ensure their own safety but also fully enjoy the benefits of having a vehicle.

- (1) Worship Goddess Lakshmi and Goddess Santoshi. Reading Shri Suktam, Kanakadhara and Lakshmi Mahatam ensures that there is never a decrease in vehicle happiness.
- (2) Every Friday at sunrise, drop sweet food prepared with your own hands, sprinkle it with milk under trees where there are insects.
- (3) If the vehicle breaks down frequently, sprinkle it with the urine of a white cow.
- (4) Respect the female gender, donate cotton wicks, ghee, and earthen lamps in the temple, serve cows.
- (5) Never walk barefoot in the house.

What Measures should be taken to Increase Fortune?

There are both believers and non-believers in this world. Even if non-believers do not acknowledge the existence of God, they cannot deny the role of fate in life, although it may not mean much to them.

Everyone has to accept, willingly or unwillingly, that there is indeed a power that shapes our destiny based on our actions. The general belief is that the fruit of the actions performed in a person's previous life is received in their next life, and the results of these actions are commonly referred to as fate, which befalls a person in their present life.

Therefore, a person's life is not just influenced by destiny but also by his actions; in other words, a person's destiny is shaped based on his actions.

Now, the question arises, if our destiny is formed by our actions, then why does a person, who is currently following the path of honesty, truthfulness, altruism, and other virtues, have to endure many difficulties in life, while another person who is on the wrong path still enjoys a happy life? If one looks closely, it becomes clear that the happiness earned through wrongdoing does not last long. In contrast, a person's good deeds help overcome obstacles in their destiny. It is a complex and debatable subject whether destiny or action is supreme, and what the reality of destiny is? In simple terms, it can be said that just as God is the truth, so is a person's destiny, which keeps changing based on his actions.

- (1) Serve the needy and distressed.
- (2) Donate food to those in need.
- (3) Arrange food and water for animals and birds.
- (4) Serve the lame and disabled, donate medicines, contribute to blind schools, old age homes and orphanages as per your capacity.
- (5) Show compassion towards the weak.
- (6) Serve your parents. Seek blessings from the elderly.
- (7) The Peepal, Banyan, and Kikar trees are also considered elders; continue to serve them.
- (8) Do not consume meat or alcohol. Refrain from Tamsik tendencies.
- (9) Free birds from cages. Release animals bought from a butcher into the forests.
- (10) Help helpless people as needed, whether it is medicine, food, shoes, or clothes.
- (11) Lead your life with good deeds - if the present improves, the future will also strengthen.

This gemstone brings you Wealth, Prosperity, Fame, Long Life and Good Health.
